

Karen & Ronan Farrell

Priding itself on 'warmth and welcome', Ballygarry House does not disappoint in providing both and much, much more.

Having looked at a number of other venues for our wedding day, we immediately disregarded any others and were highly impressed with every facet of the hotel. From the friendly and engaging staff, to the high quality décor of the hotel and the amazingly tranquil gardens, the hotel ticked all the boxes and more. From the very moment we expressed an interest in using the venue for our big day, the staff took a genuine interest in our requests and were always on hand to discuss any issues/concerns/suggestions that we had for the day.

The day itself was everything we hoped for and more and has truly ensured that Ballygarry will always be at the top of our list for any special occasion. Although the hotel has a constant stream of brides & grooms visiting their hotel week in, week out, you are made to feel the most important bride and groom on your wedding day. From the moment we arrived at the hotel, Pdraig and his staff were on-hand and were nothing short of amazing. Having been blessed with a beautiful sunny day, we had the extra luxury of getting full use of the breathtaking gardens and it ensured that our afternoon got off to the best possible start. I can still remember entering the garden and seeing the drinks reception, which we had requested, and the jazz band already in full swing with people sipping their drinks on the lawn – it immediately put everyone in the party mode and set the tone for the rest of the evening.

The entire day ran as smoothly as we could have hoped for and we never had to worry about anything throughout the day. Our guests were so well taken care of and, as always, the food was fantastic.

We have had the pleasure of being back in the hotel since our wedding day and hope to enjoy many more visits to this absolute gem of a hotel.

Thanks to Pdraig and all the staff for their hard work and dedication to detail. It ensures you remain head and shoulders above your competition.

Regina and Roy Murphy's wedding day 2nd of July 2009

First I would like to thank all the staff who helped make our day perfect.

The Ballygarry House Hotel owns the most picturesque gardens that made our photos special. The staff were very helpful and friendly, this made our day more relaxing and enjoyable. A special mention to Padraig the manager who was always there for us throughout the entire day. I would recommend this hotel to any couple who are looking for somewhere special to hold their wedding.

Helena and John McElligot August 2009

John & I got married in the Barrygarry House Hotel in August 2009. We'd like to sincerely thank the management and staff of the Ballygarry for giving us the perfect wedding day. The room for our civil ceremony was beautifully presented. The gardens of the hotel looked fantastic in our photographs. The reception was excellent with superb food served by your friendly and efficient staff. We had sirlion steak and sea bass and the portions were huge with seconds. In fact, your staff couldn't do enough for us and our guests throughout the whole day.

We'd especially like to thank Helen and Padraig. Helen was exemplary in her helpfulness and attention to detail in organising our big day. Padraig put us immediately at ease on the day itself with his polite manner, his professionalism and obvious experience. He steered us and our families through the formalities, from my pageboys' walk to my father's speech. We didn't have to worry about a thing on the day. John & I would have no hesitation in strongly recommending the Ballygarry House Hotel to anybody looking for a wonderful wedding experience.

Our Wedding Day - 19th October 2007

From the very first time we went to view the hotel, we were given so much care and attention from the manager Pdraig, he went through all aspects of the wedding day and what the hotel had to offer us.

Padraig went into great detail with us to make sure we know what exactly we were getting for the price etc. We were always treated with the most care and like our wedding was number one priority for the Ballygarry House Hotel. We were given some many great options for the meal choice, table settings, wine options , drinks reception and evening buffets.

Not only has the hotel a beautiful banquet room, to cater for all size of weddings , but it has the most fabulous gardens with spectacular views, for taking your wedding photos which turned out perfectly, for us as we were blessed with beautiful weather on our wedding day.

Padraig gave us advise on the meal / drinks / accommodation, he also recommended some good bands to go listen to which we did end up booking after seeing them play at the hotel one night, to even recommending car hire for us.

Our wedding meal was just perfect , we had over 300 people at our wedding , and everyone received a excellent meal all guests were served together and its one thing people were saying to us weeks after our wedding was the beautiful meal they received at our wedding.

The Bridal suite was just magical , supplied was a juicy fruit basket, chocolates , slippers, comfy dressing gowns the works and we received a lovely breakfast in bed the following morning after our wedding.

Padraig asked us the following morning in our office " if there was anything we would change " and our answer was " No" , it really was a perfect day from start to finish, everything went off with out a hitch, stress free, I would love to do it all over again.

Our Wedding day really and truly was magical day that went off better than we can ever imagine and a lot of that was down to the great help and advise we received from the staff at the Ballygarry hotel. I could not recommend the hotel enough if you wanted something special for your wedding day.

Kind regards

Aisling & Maurice Flaherty

From the first day we visited Ballygarry House Hotel with the view of booking our wedding, we both felt that it was going to be something special. From our first meeting with Padraig and through all the planning stages, the service we received was brilliant. There was always somebody on hand to answer any of our queries, whether big or small. When the Big Day finally arrived and the realisation of all what was before us hit, the one thing we never once worried about was the reception as we knew everything would be taken care of. Padraig, Ivan and all the staff were so welcoming, professional and their attention to every little detail was spot on, from the timing of our arrival, the meal, which as well as being delicious, also catered for the special needs of those where necessary and this attention to detail continued throughout the night until we left to retreat to our bridal suite. Even at this point, Ivan was still on duty to ensure that everything had run smoothly throughout the day and to wish us one final congratulations on our Wedding Day.

We can't thank you all enough for giving us and our family and friends such wonderful memories.
